

Information collected by Pinta

We collect different types of personally identifiable information in order to be able to provide our courses and extra information to you.

Such information may include but is not limited to name, email address, telephone numbers and credit card information. This information will have been provided by you when filling out our forms or contacting us by other means.

We also collect different types of non-personally identifiable information that may include how you use the site, any referral links that may have brought you to us, your IP address etc. Some of this information is collected through Cookies. You have the choice to modify your browser in order to reject our use of cookies.

We use the information that you give us to inform you of our courses.

We may also email you periodically to inform you of new courses that we offer.

You can of course reply with 'Unsubscribe' and we will remove you from our mailing list.

All personal information collected by Pinta is treated as strictly confidential. We may disclose your personal information if required by law. We may disclose part of your personal information to our business partners, independent contractors or other third parties when this is required in order to provide the services you have requested.

There may be security and privacy limitations, which are beyond Pinta's control. By choosing to provide personal information to Pinta you understand and agree that the security, integrity and privacy of your information cannot be 100% guaranteed.

Pinta reserves the right to change this Privacy Policy at any time. Such changes will become effective and binding after their posting on the pintaed.com website. You agree to regularly review this Privacy Policy for revisions and updates.

By continuing to use Pinta's services and website after any posted revision, you agree to those changes.